Miss Me but Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me But Let me Go!*

The Obituary

James Merritt Chambers III, of Toledo, Ohio, was born February 20, 1955, to the union of James Merritt Chambers and Lucille Benicaso. He passed away peacefully on November 23, 2018, in the care of the University of Toledo Medical Center and his loving family. James preceded in death his parents Lucille Benicaso and James Merritt Chambers, brothers Richard and Derrick.

James loved to travel and spent most of his time at sporting events with his grandchildren. He took fashion cues from no one. His signature every day look was all he needed to make sure he was well dressed. James was meticulous about cleaning, that led him to help relatives and friends with household projects. James founded James Chambers Remodeling Company and worked for Urbanite Association as a Director. He worked for the United States Postal Office and other odd professions while obtaining his Associate Degree in Psychology.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Helen Williams, and his children, Jermaine Chambers, Juwan Chambers, Sara Bond, Christian Daniels, Jamie Daniels, Jason Moulden, James Moulden, and Angela Chambers; brothers, Ronald Chambers, and Gerald (Betty) Poindexter. A host and of loving grandchildren, great grandchildren nieces, nephews, family, and friends.
