

The Cord

We are connected,
My child and I, by
An invisible cord
Not seen by the eye.
It's not like the cord
That connects us 'til birth
This cord can't been seen
By any on Earth.
This cord does it's work
Right from the start.
It binds us together
Attached to my heart.
I know that it's there
Though no one can see
The invisible cord
From my child to me.
The strength of this cord
Is hard to describe.
It can't be destroyed
It can't be denied.
It's stronger than any cord
Man could create
It withstands the test
Can hold any weight.
And though you are gone,
Though you're not here with me,
The cord is still there
But no one can see.
It pulls at my heart
I am bruised...I am sore,
But this cord is my lifeline
As never before.
I am thankful that God
Connects us this way
A mother and child
Death can't take it away!

Anjuan Melvin Hare III

AnJuan Melvin Hare III, 5 years old, of Toledo, Ohio, affectionately known to everyone as ManMan, made his way into this world on March 4, 2014, born to Crystal and AnJuan Jr., at Toledo Hospital. ManMan was the happiest, most energetic young man, and although he was young in age and small in size, he was definitely full of spirit and could keep up with the rest. ManMan had a strong passion for climbing trees and could clear any fence and let's not forget he loved spiders! Just like his dad, ManMan enjoyed playing the video game and trying to do back flips. Just like any other young boy, ManMan was truly a "mamma's boy" and he loved playing with his big sister, Tata and his baby brother, Lorenz, and every one knows his favorite color was red and he loved his fitted caps and jays.

He was preceded in death by both of his great grandfathers, Darryl Lyons and Terry Scott.

He leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Crystal and AnJuan Jr.; brother, Lorenz Dillard; sister, Tacyanna Hare; grandparents, Antonio Peralez Sr., Tamika Odom and AnJuan Hare Sr.; aunts, Tionnie and Tyreonna McCulley, Aja Hare; special aunts, Christina Maria Peralez and Courtnee Nelson; uncle, Antonio Peralez Jr.; great grandmas, Lucy Scott and Shirley Odom; great uncle, Darryl Lyons Jr.; cousins, Saleeia Solaiy, Serenity Riley, Lamar Jr., and his favorite cousins, Te'Corea Dotson and Anirah Brown; and a host of other family and friends of the family.
