Her Story

On Thursday, May 28, 2020, the angels came to Advanced Healthcare Center and quietly escorted Benae Yvette Hutchen to her Heavenly Home. Benae was born to Samuel “Sammy” and Delores D. “DeeDee” (Britter) Hutchen on August 6, 1958 in Toledo, Ohio.

Life had been a battle for Benae ever since the late eighties, early nineties. Most of us pretty much know her story. Despite the odds and Doctor’s predictions, Benae fought hard and with God’s Grace and Mercy she lived up to the 28th day of May.

Benae loved ole school music and playing spades. In fact, whenever the family went to pick her up to bring her home; she’d ask someone to play some oldies but goodies. She would sit and rock, singing her heart out reminiscing about the “good and bad” times we had as a family.

Benae left Toledo to attend Job Corps where she received her G.E.D. Upon her return home she held several jobs most of which were in the restaurant business. The funny thing about that is, you couldn't pay Benae to cook anything! She hated cooking!

Benae was preceded in death by both parents; grandparents: Wheeler (Elvine) Britter, Damor Bishop, Willie James and Victoria Hutchen; sisters, Deena Beauregard and Elizabeth R. Overton; brother, Rev. Reginald L. Hutchen.

Cherishing her memory is her only son, Gary McCoy, Jr.; siblings: Rev. Philip H. (Natalie) Hutchen, Roslyn V. Hutchen, Marvin E. (Loretha) Hutchen, Darrell K. Hutchen and Vanessa K. Bates (Curtis McDuffey); aunts and uncles: Shirley Johnson, Kenneth L. Britter, Gloria Smith, Gloria Jean Hutchen, Irene Anderson, Alonzo Jenkins, Jacquelyn Smoot and Demetrice Craig; special aunts (cousins), Carol Linzy and Leslye Colbert-Jones; special cousins, the Stone/Johnson family; many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*God saw you were getting tired, and a cure was not to be;
so He put His arms around you,
and whispered, “Come to Me!”*

We love you, your brothers and sisters
