As we look over Emma's life, we will forever cherish her unselfish ways, unconditional love, strong character, sharing heart and giving heart. She was a Godfearing woman, whose faith was unwavering. Those that knew Emma, knows, the faith that she carried with her throughout her life. She was a soldier for our Heavenly Father and a pilgrim of His truth. The joy she received and gave when she was with her husband, children and all the grandchildren will never be forgotten.
