She Was Different

She was different, she was special unique in a thousand ways.
 She was giving, she was loving, and we'll miss her all our days.
 She knew sorrow in great measure and was stung by illness too.

But neither could defeat her, nothing her faith subdue.

And when she heard death coming, she didn't cower in fear

Instead she called, "My Lord. I'm Ready."

Of course, the Lord will welcome her, with arms opened wide, his angels magnifying.

The beauty of that celestial place, devoid of pain.

And so instead of mourning as we remember her this hour,

We really should be celebrating the blooming of a flower.

But forgive us, Lord, for pining, for wishing she was here,

It's hard to give up someone we've come to love so dear.

Because you see, she was different, she was special,

Unique in a thousand ways, she was loving, she was giving.

Ad we'll miss her, miss her, miss her, all our days.
