The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

~His Story~

Jordan Marquis Ball Sr.

On Wednesday, September 9th, 2020 Jordan Ball Sr. gained his wings.

Born Tuesday, August 6th, 1991 his adventure began. "Clean up, center isle" is what local shoppers heard at Food town that evening. He was ready to make his grand entrance with a statement and boy did he! Caught in the arms of his Aunt Hollie, he came flowing out like the Jordan River, a perfect name for a beautiful blessing.

Jordan's favorite thing to do growing up was mess with his sisters and tormenting snickers! He was their worst nightmare on most days pranking, locking them out, scaring, bothering them all hours of the day. The girls decided to jump Jordan one day, which was an epic fail. But...Jordan was your worst nightmare if you even thought about messing with his family. He was a fierce protector, and will continue to be for us all.

Jordan was a loving Father of 3 beautiful children, Jayden, Jordan Jr, and Journee. They loved fishing together and going to Chuck E Cheese. Jordan enjoyed getting whooped in UNO from the kids and boxing with his son.

Jordan is an alumnus of Woodward High School, class of 2009. He had too many aspirations to limit his talents. Jordan was a jack of all trades, and self taught at that. He made music, cut a crispy head of hair, fixed your car(kinda), fisherman, hunter and a carpenter by trade. Jordan could turn $7 into $75 overnight. Jordan had a co-partner, his spirit of one soul, his cousin Manny. He had to toughen him up and took him along for many unforgettable rides! One thing he didn't have was a good sense of direction. He went to go pick up his Mom from the bus station in Detroit not too long ago and woops! Him and his rollies were crossing the bridge to Canada!

Jordan spent a lot of time with his UglyStick! He won many golden awards and fishing competitions across Lake Erie. The first fish he ever caught was a white bass, he filet'd it and fried it up as soon as he got home. His favorite food was Pizza and his Mothers Lasagna.

Jordan loved stand up comedy, you could find him in the front row getting roasted on many nights with his family. After the show, Jordan stood back and made fun of the girls shiny foreheads thinking they look cute. He said "I don't take pictures, I'm not a groupie!" But, guess who took a picture with Aries Spears grinning from ear to ear! He was his favorite stand up comedian. Whether you were family or a friend it was always an adventure hanging with Jordan, his love, smile, laughter and spirit will continue to live within all who knew him.

My Brother's Poem

As kids we lived together, we fought, we laughed, we cried. We did not always show the love that we both had inside. We shared our dreams and plans and some secrets too.

All the memories we share is what bonds me now to you. We grew to find we have a love that is very strong today. It's a love shared by our family that will never fade away. You are my brother not by choice but by the nature of our birth. I could not have chosen a better one, you are the best on Earth.

Now may he rest in peace. Fly high J. Ball
