THE OBITUARY

Reba Louise Acker McCullough was born on April 14, 1932, in Anderson, South Carolina, from the union of John P. Acker and Geneva (Williams) Acker. She grew up with five sisters (Helen/Louis Starr, Loraine/James Tarrent, Clara Acker, Frances Knox, and Bernice Taylor), and three brothers (John, Nelson and James Acker). She is preceded in death by her Mother (Geneva), Father (John P.), Husband (Lewis J. McCullough), two sisters (Helen Starr/ Clara Acker) and two brothers (Nelson and James Acker).

After graduating from Carolina High School (1950) in Williamston, South Carolina, Reba married Lewis J. McCullough and relocated to Toledo, Ohio. From this union was born their only child, Paula Jean McCullough-Martin.

Reba accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age, and after relocating to Ohio joined Third Baptist Church, and became a Sunday school teacher. She later became Lutheran and currently attends Zion Lutheran Church.

She retired from Doehler Jarvis Lead Company (Plant 1), after 25 years of employment as a Final Inspector. An avid bowler, Reba bowled with the Women's league on the Doehler Jarvis bowling team.

Reba was an exceedingly kind, caring, and giving "Mother" figure to not only her daughter, but her six younger siblings, and whomever she encountered. She knew no strangers, and loved and cared for animals (especially Nikki, Coco and Pedro) as well as people. Her greatest pleasures were her weekly Zoom sessions with her sister Loraine and her "Big Breakfast" with her brother John at least three (3) times a week. She will surely be missed.

She leaves behind to mourn her passing her daughter, Paula, sisters, Loraine, Frances and Bernice, brother, John and a multitude of nieces, nephews, friends and adopted children.
