*There's an open gate at the end of the road
Through which each must go alone,
And there is a light we cannot see,
Our Father claims his own.
Beyond the gates your loved one
Finds happiness and rest,
And there is comfort in the thought
That a loving God knows best.*

The Obituary

Mrs. Josephine Foreman, 85, was born February 4, 1936 in Windener, Arkansas to the late, loving parents, Evergreen and Waverly Moore. She departed this life on Thursday, January 14, 2021 at Park Terrace Nursing and Rehabilitation, where she was a resident until she was called home.

Josephine confessed in Christ at a young age before moving to Toledo, where she attended New Psalmist, until she became ill. Before getting sick she was a healthcare provider, a Teacher's Aide., and President for L.M.H.A. Block watch.

She is preceded in death by her mother and father, Evergreen and Waverly Moore; her daughter, Teresa; her son, Johnny; grandson, David L. Coleman; two great grandchildren, Christopher and Xzveion; two sisters, Elgin Louise (louis) Taylor and Bernice Moore; and two brothers, M.C. Moore and Orest Moore Fleming.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories, her husband, Melvin Foreman; two daughters, Vernice Foreman, Sherry (William) Davis, Melvin L. (Connie) Foreman, Leon "Pete" (Melinda) Foreman, Waverly Foreman, all of Toledo, Ohio; 22 grandchildren, 36 great grandchildren, 9 great great grandchildren; the Foreman-Dortch and Taylor Families; a host of nieces and nephews that loved her, and she loved them; niece, Glinda Taylor; nephew, Darren Taylor; special cousin, Willie James Moore; and many other extended family members.

*Grandmother,
My eyes are filled with tears
But not our of sorrow or sadness
But out of joy, the joy knowing,
You are home and now you are free
I know I miss you, but I found the answer for that.
Grandmother, you see, when I think of you,
I can see you smiling at me.
So grandmother I can't say goodbye, because my tears let me know you're right here, living within my heart.
- Your Grandchildren*

*To Those I Loved and
Those Who Loved Me
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things in heaven to see and do
You must not tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave to you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me is happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But know it's time I traveled on alone
So grieve for me, if grieve you must Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So, bless the memories within your heart,*
