Obituary

Mrs. Christine Fitzpatrick was born October 15, 1929 to the late Callie Idella Jordan-Gaston-Metzger and Albert Gaston in Blytheville, Arkansas. She made her spiritual transition on January 27, 2021 at Spring Meadow, a villa center, in Holland, Ohio.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick loved gardening, traveling, sewing, joking around with family, playing bingo, shopping, cleaning, cooking, and most of all, her family. Christine was loved by many. She had the biggest heart, and was a very loving and caring person. She is preceded in death by her parents; late husband, Nelson Fitzpatrick, Jr.; sons, Roy Edward Tuggle, Sr. Kenneth Tuggle; sisters, Roberta Moore, Jetherine Gaston; brothers, Richard Gaston, William Lucas; four grandchildren, and five great grandchildren.

She was employed at Butting Brass for 11 years, she then went on to retire from Dohler Jarvis.

Christine loved the Lord, and was a member of Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church. She decided to follow her husband and became an active member of his home church, Friendship Baptist Church. While there, she ushered for years.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her children, Clyde (Patricia) Gaston, Jr., Jimmy Lee (Tina) Tuggle, Eugene (Gail) Tuggle, Wilma Louise Tuggle, Debbie Jean Tuggle, Audrey Denise Tuggle, Sharon Marie Tuggle, Richard Yancy (Vicky) Tuggle, Freddie Mae Tuggle, Freda Leigh Tuggle; sisters, Merlinda Page and Kathrine Jacobs; 40 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, 26 great-great grandchildren, whom she adored dearly, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and kind friends.
