Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Organ Postlude

*Last night I took a journey To a land across the seas;
I did not go by boat or plane; I traveled on my knees.
I saw so many people there In deepest depths of sin,
But Jesus told me I should go That there were souls to win.
But I said, "Jesus, I cannot go And work with such as these."
He answered quickly, "Yes, you can, By traveling on your knees.
He said, "You pray; I'll meet the need, You can call and I will hear;
Be concerned about lost souls, Of those both far and near."
And so I tried it, knelt in prayer; Gave up some hours of ease;
I felt the Lord right by my side While traveling on my knees.
As I prayed on and saw souls saved And twisted bodies healed,
And saw God's workers' strength renewed While laboring on the field,
I said, "Yes, Lord, I have a job, My desire Thy will to please;
I can go and heed Thy call By traveling on my knees.*
