Organ Postlude

*I heard my Lord call me and
He called me by my name.
I knew that I was leaving to catch the heavenly train.
My Lord watched and waited patiently,
He knew the day and hour to come for me.
He had my ticket in his hand,
I could not refuse the ride to my father's land.
So many have gone before me
And there are so many behind.
There are no delays on this train
because mine came on time.
Weep not or mourn for me because my train has gone away.
Remember, I lived my life
to the fullest each day.
And I gave love and happiness on my way.
My life is to the fullest even to this day.*
