

*My Auntie, Fought with all her might, to stay here with us. God had the final say so,
to call her home.
If we knew it was your time, we would of spent more time.
Couldn't watch her suffer, it was time. Her wings were ready to soar; but my heart was not ready to let her go.
She was the life of the party, it all began when she dropped it low, dancing dow the soul train line, cutting up the floor.
She was the fish dreamer, she knew when someone was pregnant.
She had the best crab salad in this world, and macaroni salad too.
She always kept kept it real and spoke what was on her mind, and didn't care who they were.
She made us laugh and cry with her, and sometimes made us mad as hell at her. But at the end of the day, she had mad tough love.
The love and respect we have for her, goes beyond this world.
So rest well my beautiful Queen. I love you and will miss you dearly "Big Sexy".*

*Love always, your niece,
