Obituary

Lawanda Lee, 49, was born in Toledo, OH on September 8, 1971 to Gloria Jean Lee and James Henry Taylor, who went home to be with the Lord on March 12, 2021. She attended Devilbiss High School and served the Lord at St. James Baptist Church. Wanda was a very joyful and delightful person to be around to know her was to definitely love her. She had a smile so bright with some of the deepest dimples you'll ever see. She had her own name for everybody she knew. If you knew Wanda then you knew you could count on her when you couldn't count on anyone else. She had a heart of gold effortlessly. She left a mark on everyone she met in life. Lawanda was a "doer" rather she benefitted or not. She will truly be missed by everyone deeply.

Lawanda was proceeded in death by her son, Christian Williams; her mother who raised her, Ruby Hughes; her birth mother, Gloria Lee; her father, James Taylor; cousin, Cynthia Moton; brother, Carl Lee; nieces, Arnecya Talley and Donesha Hayes.

Lawanda is survived by her four children, Erick, Scheronda, Schmika and Schontae Williams; grandchildren, Schniya, Sch'Ray, Aiyanna, Gary Busby Bey III and Erianna Wright; father of her children, Erick Williams Sr.; sisters, Rosemary Morris, Jacqueline Lee, Tammy Taylor, Toyia Taylor, Alice Hood, Regina Wyley, and Chaney Taylor; brothers, Brian Lee, William Morris, James Wyley, and Jamel Taylor; special nephews, Dalrico and Deandre Taylor; special cousins, Chris Demarco and Tyreese Morris; mother figure, Diana Morris; bestfriend, Nona Mason; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*"Let not your hearts be troubled;
believe in God, believe also in me.
In my Father's house are many rooms;
if it were not so,
would I have told you that I go
to prepare a place for you?
And when I go
and prepare a place for you,
I will come again,
and will take you to myself,
that where I am you may be also."*

John 14: 1-3
