

I Promise

Dear Granny,

You raised us up to always do our best
As I write these words it's time to lay you to eternal rest.

I promise to be all I can be and more.
Making sure to carry the love, strength & fighting spirit
you always showed that was part of your core.

Your legacy started in the 70's with your first grandson Zell and may we continue to keep your legacy alive to ensure your vision for our family continue to prevail.

A feisty, stubborn and sassy fighter you will always be remembered to be and making sure your grandchildren were well, was a large portion of your life that many that knew you could see.

85 years on this earth, you've left your footprint despite life's ups and downs. We now know it's up to us to make sure we get in position for your legacy to continue to grow.

I promise to stand tall, be a role model and keep your legacy alive. For being your eldest granddaughter is an honor that I wear with so much pride.

Now as my angel I look up to the sky & say "Granny get your rest & until we meet again, I LOVE YOU with a love that will never die.

The Obituary

Glynece "Jackie" Moore transitioned to her eternal home on Saturday, October 22, 2022 at the Toledo Hospital in Toledo, OH surrounded and supported by her loving family

Glynece was born to Ethel Wilson and David Moore in Saint Louis, Missouri on December 31, 1936 and was reared in a loving home. She was educated in the Toledo Public School system and she spent her years rearing her children and grandchildren which she loved more than anything. Glynece undoubtedly wore many hats but she thoroughly enjoyed being a grandmother. In her mid 40's, she put her life on hold to take care of her grandchildren full-time. This meant everything to her and from then on she continued to sacrifice and adjust her life to make sure her grandchildren were given a solid foundation to stand on. Whether it was enjoying her soap operas, sitting on the porch and people watching or simply doing the best she could with what she had, she knew keeping her grandchildren together was a priority regardless of what she had to sacrifice. She held the position as the Matriarch of the Moore's family and was affectionately known as Granny, Gran Gran, depending which grandchild was addressing her.

Another love of Glynece was listening to old school music. She would enjoy music from the 60's and 70's no matter the artist. Even up until her last earthly breathe, Granny was listening to one of her old time favorites, "Stairway to Heaven" by the O'Jays. Glynece's favorite pass time activities included spending time with family, playing pool and the lottery and her all time favorite, attending bingo.

Glynece was preceded in death by her mother Ethel Wilson, father David Moore, sons Charles Ali Sr. and Kim "Marty" Moore .

Glynece is survived and leaves to cherish her daughter Shelia Moore, brothers William Moore and Paul Haire, grandsons Donzell Moore Sr., Terelle Moore, Charles Ali Jr.; granddaughters Aleanya Moore, Alaina Moore, Latila Ali. Great-grandchildren Donzell Moore Jr, Deonte Moore, LaZela Moore, Kemarri Moore, Zelan Moore, Ma'ssiah Sanders, Kareia Burnett, Deon Burnett, Damar Burnett, Jalicia Moore, LeZell Moore, Imani Moss, Jace Moore, Solomon Williams, Antonio Williams, Jessa Moore, A'zaria Lockhart; 6 great-great grandchildren; Goddaughter Darla Lawson; Niece Felicia Haire and a host of other nieces, cousins, nephews & several close friends.
