

Poem Written By Tammy

Much Tears In My Heart

As I add the times of my memories and experiences one by one I feel a deep feeling of lost. There will be a time when my memories will pass. Until I find happiness, The memories of my family and friends will always hold the deepest and most important feelings of my life. I will not worry; I will not weep. I will until the day of my nonexistence find my peace. Until then my life will go on, I won't forget ME.

Pastor Frank Simmons, Jr., Eulogist

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

Tamara Louise Wood

Tamara L. Wood, 64, of Toledo, Ohio passed away peacefully in her home on Friday, December 16, 2022. She was the daughter of Arthur and Mildred Wood.

Tammy worked at the Toledo Public Library for many years before she had an aneurysm and stroke. Tammy proved to be the warrior we knew her to be, because she won that fight and made it through.

Tammy was kindhearted, very head strong, stubborn, and a firecracker at times, but she meant well. Tammy was a go getter she never let anything get in the way of her goals.

She adored making people smile with her free spirit, living her final days being in her own world, living her life spreading love and joy along the way.

Tammy is preceded in death by both parents Mildred and Arthur Wood and son Brian Wood.

She is survived by her daughter, Giah Wood; granddaughters, Jashyia and Jayda Winston; brother Dale A Wood.

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.*
