The Obituary

Barbara Ann Carter was born April 10, 1937 in Toledo, Ohio to the union of Marshall Carter and Virginia Watkins Price Bey. Both of whom preceded her in death.

In 1955, Barbara graduated from Libbey High School. After high school, she attended The University of Toledo for three years. Barbara worked at the Health and Retiree Center in Toledo, Ohio as a license pharmacist technician for twenty-five years. In 1985 she worked for the Toledo Public School system as a volunteer reading specialist. Barbara retired from Local 500 as a laborer in 2003.

Barbara obtained her nail technician license from Toledo Academy of Beauty Culture, Toledo, Ohio. Additional certifications included the following: cake decorating and French cooking.

In 1955, Barbara took part in the cotillion high school social club. She was a part of the Mother's Club and choir of at Saint Paul Methodist Church in Toledo, Ohio.

She was baptized at Bethnal Apostolic Church. She enjoyed studying the bible. Barbara was a music enthusiast, she liked singing gospel and classical music. She was a skilled gardener and an avid reader and bowler. She loved traveling, and organizing gatherings for family and friends. She was a decorator and loved decorating her house during the Christmas season. Her decorations became a signature theme in the Old West End area. Every Christmas tree branch had extravagant collectible ornaments.

She leaves to cherish her memories (daughters) Tracy Ann Carter-Amos, Jamie Willet Carter, Jaylen Michelle Carter, (sister) Judith C. Beckles, (brother) Jeffery Thomas Price, (grandchildren) India Carter-Claytor, Markanthony V. Amos, Keith Carter, Jr., Ceriyah Miller, (great-grandchildren) Dominic Claytor, Amara Lee Ann Amos, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, family and friends she loved dearly.

Barbara was preceded in death by both parents, former husband, Willie Copeland, sons, Kevin Carter and Keith Carter, sister, Rita Louise Price Thomas, and her best friends Jacqueline Johnson, Juanita Harris-Kohlheim, Ernestine Braswell-Carter and Shirley Smith.

Barbara was like a stream of sunshine. Her brightness can fill an empty room, everyone loved her. Barbara has gone on to take her place as an angel of God.
